

Terms and Conditions | Clinical Abstracts

By submitting an abstract, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

- Submissions must be the original work of the submitting author(s), must not have been previously published and must not be under consideration by another publication or conference
- The Conference Organiser reserves the right to refuse material that does not meet requirements or is deemed inappropriate in either content or size
- Abstract acceptances will be advised by 6 May 2024
- Accepted authors must register and pay for the Conference at the discounted speaker rate by 12 June 2024. Failure to register will result in the presentation being withdrawn
- The Conference Organiser reserves the right to publish all accepted presentations via the conference app or other channels
- As an accessibility initiative, a PDF of all presentation slides will be made available to delegates prior to the conference. The slides and a recording of presentations, if applicable, will also be made available on Digital Health TV for viewing by registered delegates post conference. Presenters will receive no financial or other compensation for these video recordings. The video will become the property of the AIDH in perpetuity to use only in the manner described. The logo of the organisation sponsoring the event may be included at the start of the final edited version of the video, and the AIDH logo will be watermarked over the length of the video
- The name, job title, organisation name, photo and biography of all presenters will be included in the conference app
- Submission of an abstract will be regarded as acceptance of these conditions