

NURSING INFORMATICS: NURSING CAREER PATHS IN DIGITAL HEALTH

Program

Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre
Clarendon Room

|         |   |                             |
|---------|---|-----------------------------|
| 8.00am  | Registration opens  |                             |
|         | OPENING SESSION  |                             |
| 9.00am  | Welcome addressLis Herbert Chair, Nursing Informatics Australia @lisherbert  |                             |
| 9.15am  | Shaping a modern digital profession: Canadian nursing informatics achievements, challenges and the long road aheadDr Margaret Kennedy Chief Nursing Informatics Officer and Managing Partner, GevityConsulting Inc (CA) @KennedyMargie   |                             |
| 9.45am  | Clinical nurse transitioning into health informatics: A research journey of innovation and collaborationLeanna Woods PhD Candidate, University of Tasmania @LeannaWoods2016  |                             |
| 10.05am | Learn as if you were to live foreverKaren Blake Regional Manager Health Informatics, healthAlliance (NZ) @hAsharedservice  |                             |
| 10.20am | The role of a nurse in a health service data science team: Making the data meaningfulDamien McCaul Project Manager, NSW Ministry of Health @damienmcc1   |                             |
| 10.30am | Morning tea and exhibition  |                             |
|         | MORNING SESSION  | CHAIR Tasneem Islam         |
| 11.00am | My journey as a nurse informatician: My experience on a road less travelledBryan Macdonald Senior account director & subject matter expert, Telstra Health @TelstraHealth  |                             |
| 11.20am | Empowering nurses and midwives: Building health informatics capability and capacity in the South Australian nursing and midwifery workforceJenny Hurley Chief Nurse & Midwifery Officer, SA Health @SAHealth   |                             |
| 11.40am | The true value of nursing informaticsMichelle Winning Co-Director, Digital Healthcare Delivery, Metro South Health @MetSthHealth   |                             |
| 12.00pm | Nurses leading the way in health informatics: Findings from the 2018 Australian Health Information Workforce CensusA/Prof Kerryr Butler-Henderson Associate Professor of Digital Health, University of Tasmania @DrKerryrBHAngela Ryan Chief Clinical Information Officer, Australian Digital Health Agency @bompansero |                             |
| 12.30pm | Lunch and exhibition  |                             |
|         | AFTERNOON SESSION  | CHAIR Liz Cummings          |
| 1.30pm  | Nursing Informatics "speed dating"  |                             |
| 3.00pm  | Afternoon tea and exhibition  |                             |
|         | CLOSING SESSION  | CHAIR Dr Jen Bichel-Findlay |
| 3.20pm  | Nursing informatics in the undergraduate curriculum: Time to make it visibleEmma Collins (NZ) Principle Lecturer, Otago Polytechnic @OPAuckland  |                             |
| 3.40pm  | Undergraduate nursing students' digital literacy skills preparedness for the digitalised clinical environment in Australia: A review of the literatureAnnette Stundén Lecturer Western Sydney University @westernsydusonm  |                             |
| 4.00pm  | Standardising functional and psychosocial assessment in acute care: A new minimum data set for nursing assessmentBonnie Pimm Research Nurse, University of Queensland - interRAI @UQ_News  |                             |
| 4.20pm  | Quality standards and a Royal Commission: How has a nursing software system supported nurses in this and other health care sectorsCaroline Lee CEO, Leecare Solutions @LeecareSolution   |                             |
| 4.40pm  | Moya Conrick Prize announcementLis Herbert @lisherbert   |                             |
| 4.50pm  | Thank you and closing remarksLis Herbert Chair, Nursing Informatics Australia @lisherbert  |                             |
| 5.00pm  | Nursing Informatics Australia AGM   |                             |
| 5.15pm  | NETWORKING RECEPTION   |                             |