

AIDH Board call for nominations 2022

Nominations are hereby called from AIDH members to fill three (3) elected vacancies on the Board of the Australasian Institute of Digital Health. All of these vacancies are for a three (3) year term.

The current elected Directors whose term ceases at the 2022 AGM are: David Hansen, Belinda Lange and Angela Ryan.

Nominations must be received by 5pm AEST on Thursday 21 July 2022.

All nominations must be made on the AIDH Board nomination form and be accompanied by a nominee statement and headshot.

Guide for prospective nominees

As a guide for prospective nominees, the Board has the responsibility for the governance of AIDH nationally and Board Members are Directors of the organisation with associated responsibilities under the Corporations Act. The Board aims for a breadth of skills and experience and has the ability to appoint or co-opt additional members to fill to any significant gaps. If interested in submitting a nomination, prospective Board Members should consider the skills and experience that they would bring as a Director and their vision for the organisation, in addition to your experience and understanding of health informatics.

Please familiarise yourself with the new ASIC requirements for Board Directors to have a Directors Identification Number (DIN). For those who have not been a Board Director previously, ASIC requires intending directors to apply for a DIN prior to being appointed, so we ask that nominees supply their DIN when nominating. We will not share your DIN publicly.

Board composition and meeting requirements

Nominees are advised to familiarise themselves with the AIDH Constitution. The AIDH Board comprises of not less than three (3) and not more than twelve (12) members. The term of office of each elected Board member is three (3) years. The term of office of each appointed Board member is determined by the Board at the time of appointment. At present, the Board meet on an alternative monthly schedule for either a 1 or 2-hour videoconference and meet in person two (2) times per year. There are several Board Sub-Committees which meet a minimum of four (4) times per year, for relevant members.

Eligibility

A person who is eligible under the AIDH Constitution to vote and/or hold office includes a Fellow, Associate Fellow, Individual member, and a single nominee from an organisational member (who has voting rights). It does not include other organisational members (affiliates), or individual members who are concessional or affiliate members.

For any questions regarding your nomination, eligibility or voting rights please contact Aydin Rahmi, Operations Manager on email execoffice@digitalhealth.org.au
